Dedication

We of McCallsburg High School wish to dedicate this annual to the Board of Education and all citizens of the McCallsburg community for their tireless effort in securing for the students of the McCallsburg School more plentiful and modern educational facilities. We are sure their efforts will be rewarded many times.

Class History

In September 1942, seventeen little geniuses peeked their little heads through the little portholes of a big experience in their little little lives. At first the building seemed gloomy and foreboding but when we entered it took on a new light.

The names of these highly intellectual individuals were as follows: Glen Amdahl, Connie Arnold, Marilyn Black, Irving Egeland, Jerome Fuller, Mary Lou Imsland, Myrna Kilstofte, Janet Lee, Shirley Ose, Dale Ostendorf, Richard Thompson, Beverly Tjelmeland, Darwin Twedt, Carroll Woster, Dale Carsrud and Stanley Thompson. We gave the honor of teaching us to Miss Doughty.

Before the year was over Connie Arnold decided to go to Washington.

Dale Carsrud went to Nevada to see how that school was operating and Irving Egeland left us to go to Randall.

Our second grade teacher was Miss Baldus. We had some people join us in second grade. They were Gayle Goodman, Viola Savage, Avis Van Lew and Wyvonne Davis.

We were really on our way now. We were in third grade. Our teacher was Mrs. Anderson. Four of the intellectuals left us and left us with only fourteen. They were Marilyn Black who went to Fernald, Berlyn Uskens went to State Center, Avis Van Lew went to Woodward and Dale Ostendorf went to Marshalltown. After losing those we also gained two. Beverly Grunsted and Eugene Weirson came and brought our total back to fourteen to enter into fourth grade.

Our fourth grade teacher, Woster, welcomed us with open arms and that's about all that happened.

On to fifth grade. Our Wyvonne Davis decided to leave place. Connie Arnold decided to leave from California, Ada Wendt came Merkel also joined us. This left Sixth grade and Mrs. Clifford us. Jerome Fuller went to Colorado Severson joined us from Fernald and Arkansas. Before the start of 7th and Marion Hickman left us.

We finally made it. We are in Junior High. What fun we'll have. Mrs. Amdahl recognized us as a very intelligent class so she came along with us to see if she could learn anymore from us. Marlene, Connie, Bob and Emeretta stayed with us for a month or so and then they left. Connie Arnold went to Wisconsin, Marlene Arneson went back to California, Bob Severson went to Burlington and Emeretta Randall went back to Marshalltown.

teacher was Miss Marcella Egnes but we gained five to take her come back, Marlene Arneson came North Grant, Glen Mathis and Chuk us a grand total of seventeen.

Amdahl were very happy to have and Glen Mathis left us. Bob Marion Hickman came to us from grade Darwin Twedt, Eugene Weirson

Our last year of grade school finally arrived. Our teacher was Mrs. Vest. During the year Connie Arnold came back to stick it out with us. Ada Wendt went to Nevada. Darrell Chentland arrived from country school to bring our total to twelve to start down our high school road. The seventh grade gave us a party as a send-off which we appreciated very much.

Now we were green frosh. We were initiated by the seniors and became true members of Burg High. We elected officers. They were:

Pres.-Carroll Woster, V. Pres.-Janet Lee, Sec. and Treas.-Beverly Grunsted. Our Sponsor was Elmer Schey. The faculty consisted of Mr. Ritland, Mr. Vest, Mr. Foster, Mrs. Alford and Mr. Schey.

After we had successfully started off our high school career we proceeded on to being sophomores. We elected the following officers: Pres.-Connie Arnold, V. Pres.-Beverly Grunsted, Sec. and Treas.-Beverly Tjelmeland. Our sponsor was Darrell Foster.

Summer was over and we now took our seats as Juniors. During this year we gave our Class play which was "Campus Quarantine." The play was a great success. It was under the direction of our new music teacher, Mr. James Montgomery. Our officers were: Pres.-Janet Lee, Sec. and Treas.-Miss Dorothy Drinkle. We gave our Junior-Senior Banquet on April 5, 1953. We went to Des Moines and ate at Bishop's Cafeteria. We went to KRNT and saw "The Fourposter." A good time was had by all. Charles Merkel left us at the semester.

Class Will

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty four, in full possession of our crammed minds and being about to pass out from the McCallsburg High school do make and publish this, our last will and testament.

First, to our beloved faculty, we bequeath all startling information that we have furnished them from time to time in examination papers.

To Mr. Bill Vest, our class sponsor, we bequeath the balance in our class treasury to be used in buying a pair of rubber shoes for detective work in handling our successors.

To the Juniors, we bequeath our fighting spirit and harmonious conflicts, as well as all our seats in the assembly which may be taken by whosoever is able to grab them first.

To the Sophomores, we bequeath our superhuman basketball ability. For extra measure, we leave to them any stubs of pencils, erasers or scraps of paper that we have left behind.

To the Freshman, we bequeath all overlooked wads of gum underneath desks, seats or any other likely or unlikely place. We also hope that after four years of trial and error, they may be able to meet our high standard of dignity.

I, Glen Amdahl, do bequeath my collection of rats, mice, pigeons, etc, to Marlene Fincham who seems to like wild creatures.

I, Connie Arnold, do bequeath my office job to Marvin Martin since he is in the office most of the time anyway.

I, Darrell Chentland, do bequeath my curly hair to Mr. Fogle.

I, Myrna Kilstofte, do bequeath my terrific gift of gab to Janet Pearson.

I, Beverly Grunsted, do bequeath my ability to throw a basketball the length of the floor to Lauren Hobson who probably will never use it.

I, Janet Lee, do bequeath my interest in the army to Joan Lura, who is interested (period).

I, Shirley Ose, do bequeath the remaining boys in high school to Dorothy Stackhouse since I already have the one I want.

I, Richard Thompson, do bequeath my gigantic structure and powerful build to David Tolley.

I, Stanley Thompson, do bequeath my many long hours of intense study to Peggy Baumgardner.

I, Carroll Woster, do bequeath my ability to stick to one woman to Steven Hanson.

Lastly, we hereby nominate and appoint Mr. Bill Vest as sole Executor of this, our last will and testament, written on this 18th day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred, and fifty four.

The Senior Class

Mottos

Stanley--It wasn't until late in life that I learned to say "I don't know!"

Janet--I don't believe in love at first sight, but I believe in taking a second look.

Carroll--Tell me where she is, and I'll take care of her.

Darrell--"Get that light out of my face, I came here to sleep!"

Richard--I only eat once a day and that's all day long.

Connie--Don't bother me. I've got things to do and all that.

Shirley--I may be a small package but when I get mad watch out!

Glen--All I want is more night life.

Beverly--Wind her up and see her go!

Myrna--Won't someone make a fuss over me?

Mr. Vest--Nobody gets out of my sight!

Mr. Rosheim--Talk about boogie woogie or that Dixieland style and your bowling 300 right down my alley.

Mrs. Egenes--Now that the piano playing president is out of office, I find that a little golf now and then helps my prestige.

Mr. Mannes--I've got so much more building to cover since we have the new gym that I'm beginning to appreciate the old building more each day.

Mr. Foster--Never do today, what you can put off until tomorrow.

Mrs. Cheney--Teaching is a lot more fun, especially when your husband can come along.

Mr. Poulter--It has to be awful funny before I'll laugh.

We have finally reached the end of our high school years. We took our seats on the extreme east side of the assembly with pride. Our Class officers were: Pres.-Myrna Kilstofte, V. Pres.-Connie Arnold, Sec.-Treas.- Janet Lee. Our sponsor was Mr. Bill Vest. Beverly Tjelmeland decided to leave us so we now have a total of ten. Our senior play "Have a Date" was presented on March 26, 1954 with an all star cast of characters. It was under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Cheney. For our Senior Skip day we sent to Chicago. We saw many points of interest and everyone enjoyed it immensely. We sold magazines and refreshments at the Jr. High tournament to earn the money. The Junior-Senior banquet was held April 29, 1954 at the High School Cafeteria. A vote of thanks goes to the Juniors from us all.

Of the seventeen who began in first grade, seven have been pulling together all twelve years. They are: Glen Amdahl, Myrna Kilstofte, Janet Lee, Shirley Ose, Carroll Woster, Richard Thompson and Stanley Thompson.

This very distinguished Class of '54 has proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that they are outstanding in their many fields of endeavor and as everyone will agree, they will continue to do so throughout their lives.

We will not say we won't think of our high school days but it will be nice to be out and just have to think about them.

So we shall say farewell. Our class may be small, five boys and five girls, but it will leave an empty spot in the very heart of the school. We all hope the school will continue even though the loss is very great.

Senior Prophecy

It was May 21, 1964, when Mr. and Mrs. Vest, still principal of the McCallsburg High School, decided to take a trip around the world. They were so devoted to the class of '54, they were going to try to see every one of them.

They started by going to Chicago, where Myrna Kilstofte was the head of the Methodist hospital. Myrna was real glad to see them. She said she enjoyed her work very much.

The next stop was in New York City where Stanley Thompson was pitching for the New York Yankees. Stan had no idea they were coming and Vests got there just in time to see Stan pitch a game, then they has a long talk afterwards. Mr Vest said he knew Stanley would really make something out of life, since he was so studious in school.

Carroll Woster had joined the National Guard, and was stationed in Maine. He had decided he would probably be a 20 year man, life's really not worth living anyway, when he couldn't get Shirley Ose. He said if he couldn't be married to Shirley, he would never marry.

While they were still in the states, they went down to Georgia to see Janet Lee, she and LaVerne had been living there for eight years. Janet had gone to college and she was teaching down there. They liked it so well while Lavern was in service, they just stayed. Vests didn't take their children Roger, Kathy, Lamona, and Bob with them but now they wished they had because Janet's twin girls would have enjoyed it.

Now they were off to Europe, the first stop there was in Norway, of course, where Shirley Ose was going to school. She has been going for ten years now and since she liked Norway so well when she used to go over there, she decided to finish her schooling there.

The next step for Vests was in Russia, where Glen Amdahl was the United States Ambassador to Russia. Glen happened to be in Russia for a big three meeting, so Vests got a chance to see him.

Richard Thompson was in Korea now, so when they flew over they thought they would be able to see him. No, there wasn't still a war going on, Richard was only collecting all the scrap junk left over from the war. He asked President Eisenhower if he could have it, and he said Yes, if he hauled it away.

Vests had an interesting tour through Korea, through all the places the war had destroyed.

Then it was time to go back to the United States. They first stopped in California, where Beverly Grunsted was. Shirley Ose and Beverly had gone with Mary Tabor out to California as soon as they graduated. Shirley had flown right back, but Bev liked it so well she stayed with Mary. Vests finally found Bev's apartment, it was in Hotel Beverly Hills. Bev and Mary were models for the "Big Pay-off", so they were really living fancy.

Darrell Chentland was in Reno, Nevada, where he owned several gambling joints. He had made so much money gambling he didn't know what to do with it. Vests stayed at Darrell's mansion for about a week. Bill said he wished he had learned how to play cards insted of just taking away the guy's money in high school.

Now, finally they were on their way back to Iowa. There was only one member of the class still living there. That was Connie Arnold. She was Governor Foster's private secretary in Des Moines. Vests hadn't seen her since she graduated even though she lives just 50 miles away but they had seen her picture in the newspapers many times.

When they were just about back to McCallsburg, Bill turned to Dorothy and said, "You know, Dorothy, those are the nicest bunch of kids I've ever taught, everyone of them really reached their goal in life."

Synopsis

This play was a three act comedy which was about college life. Mr. and Mrs. Cole had some trouble raising their two daughters, Carol and Marylee, and then ran into some hard feelings with the neighbor girl, Barbara, when their orphan niece, Ellen came to stay with them. Of course, all of the girls had their boyfriends who were Bill, Arthur and Joe. They all ended up going to the dance with the exception of Barbara who was too stiff from her exercises to be able to go.

*Mary I have been so much fun living with you up in the apartment.
Just "grofing" off as usual.
I have really enjoyed it very much. I know we will have fun
next year too. Love,
Write to me this summer. Love,
Oma*
